GRAY AND SILVER.

I had a love. Dark haired was she.
Her eyes were gray.
For sake of her across the sea
I sailed away.

Death, sickness, tempest and defeat
All passed me by.
With years came fortune, fair and fleet,
And rich was I.

Again for me the sea looked down
Familiar skies.
I found my love. Her locks had grown Gray as her eyes.

"Alas," she sighed, "forget me, now
No longer in the big house. He had tried
"I loved thy hair," I whispered low,
"And not thy hair."

—C. E. Phelps in New York Tribune.

THE BROKEN KEY.

The young and pretty bride felt worried and out of sorts. Only a short time ago she married her dear Gus, and had followed him to his home in

W., and already he had begun to neglect

her, to go out of an evening and to leave her in the big house. He had tried to convince her that he could not altogether neglect his former friends and companions and that she ought not to object to his meeting them on two evenings every week and to pass an agreeable hour or two in their company over a friendly game of whist, but she simply did not comprehend how he could enjoy himself without her, how he could ever think of going anywhere

without taking her along.

"Oh, the dreadful evenings I have to spend!" she complained, with tears in her eyes. "I am obliged to sit here all alone because I have as yet had no chance to form any acquaintances here.

Naturally I get homesick. Often I feel like leaving everything and taking the train home to my parents."

"Would it not be better, darling, if you went to bed and tried to sleep?"

"That is just where the trouble is,"

she replied, still in tears. "I am afraid.

My servant sleeps up in the attic. I should not even hear her anything to happen to me."

"Why you foolish child, what is there to be afraid of? What is going to happen?"

"Are not the papers every day full of burglaries and robberies?" she persisted.

"Think of the many strangers that flock to a well known health resort like this.

Nothing is impossible under such circumstances."

The husband looked thoughtfully at his sweet bride.

"No, dear, I do not want you to frighten yourself into illness. I promise you herewith of my own free will"—the poor fellow could not help leaving a sign as he said this—"to return promptly at 11 o'clock whenever I go to meet my friends. It is impossible for me to withdraw myself from their society altogether, for they would ridicule and make fun of me and call me peevish.

Burglars rarely put in their appearance before the hour of 11, the streets being full of life and traffic. Goodbye, darling, and please do not feel lonesome."

Annie sighed and submitted resign-edly to her fate. She read awhile. She then took up her embroidery, a present from her mother. She played a game of solitaire, and finally she paced restlessly up and down the room. At home there had been a large family circle; hence it was very trying to her to be left so much to herself in her new surroundings.

At 10 o'clock even the familiar noises

in the kitchen ceased, for the servant

had gone up stairs to her attic, and the poor woman felt the old feeling of distress and fright creep over her. The sitting room was located at the rear of the house, and there was a hallway between it and the front rooms. She therefore could not hear the usual noises. A deathlike silence reigned in the room.

Tired and yet excited, she threw herself on the lounge. She sadly reflected why her home and her parties had been called into existence. By and by her thoughts became more and more confused, and she fell into a sound sleep.

It was 11:05 o'clock when Gus arrived

breathlessly and posthaste at his house door and tried to fit his key into the lock.

Poor fellow! Had evil spirits conspired to get him into trouble? Click-the key broke in two, and the bit stuck fast in the keyhole, handle and barrel alone remaining in his hands.

He knocked, he called, he knocked again and louder—for unfortunately there was no house bell; all in vain.

"I hardly think my wife has retired as early as this," he reflected, "but of course she is in the sitting room, and most likely she cannot hear me." Once more he knocked, this time very loud.

He called until his voice was hoarse; no reply.

To fill his cup of misery to the brim

it commenced to rain, and he was without an umbrella.

"Perhaps Annie has gone to bed after all," he thought, shivering and dripping wet. "Shall I go to a hotel? Not

What would the people think! The only place that I know of that may still be open is the railway depot, for there is a train arriving at midnight."

He went down the street in a pouring rain and at last found himself in the waiting room of the station.

"A good night, sir?" asked an employing waiter. Gus shook himself.

He felt chilly. "Punch," he said, "and make it hot!" He drank one glass and then another and still another to while away the time. He was the only person there. In due time the last train had arrived, and he could stay no longer.

They were about to close up.

In sheer desperation he looked at his watch.

It was 1 o'clock when he emerged into the street, and it had ceased to rain.

The full moon seemed to grin and wink

at him maliciously through the clouds,

as though she meant to say: "See, old man, it serves you right. Why must you go out to play cards and leave your wife

at home in loneliness!"

In spite of the repeated petitions he still felt chilly. "There is no help for it but a good run," he said to himself, starting on a lively trot through the city, first down one street, then up another, through the suburbs, until he reached the open country and back again

without stop or rest for fear of catching cold.

The town clock struck the hour of 4.

"It is still too early to get into the

THE WATER QUESTION.

The action taken by the City Trustees, who are backed up by the progressive citizens of this town, in their efforts to secure to Sonoma an adequate supply of water for domestic and fire purposes, has woken up the Rip Van Winkles of this town, and the City Trustees are bound to win in this water controversy in the end—that is to say, they are bound to get the water, no matter where it comes from or who furnishes it.

It matters not to them or the people they represent who supplies this water. But water we must and will have. The latest proposition in regard to improving the water service in Sonoma is that of Messrs. Schocken, Aguilon, Weyl and other owners of artesian wells in this city. These parties now propose to consolidate their various private water systems into one company to be known as the Sonoma City Water Company. Now, if these parties mean business and really intend to go ahead and expend $25,000 in giving to Sonoma a first-class water system—one that will be approved by competent civil engineers—and will file a bond with the City Trustees as a guarantee of good faith, we assure Messrs. Schocken, Weyl and their associates that the INDEX-TRIBUNE will stand in with Trustees Seipp, Hartig, Bulotti and Modini, and accord the new company its hearty co-operation.

Sonoma needs water and the City Trustees, who have favored no one in this matter, deserve the thanks of every unselfish citizen for the back-bone they have exhibited in handling this important question. Now, let the artesian well owners organize their company and show that they mean business. If they do not do this within a reasonable time the election for municipal ownership of water works will be held and, what is more, it will carry, too.

"My vineyard pays because nothing goes to waste," declared a Napa wine grower, says the San Francisco Post. "After squeezing the juice out of grapes for wine, we extract the tartaric acid from the pulp and feed the refuse to the hogs. What the hogs do not eat we burn and use as a fertilizer. Then we slaughter the pigs, smoke the hams, shoulders and sides, make sausage, cremate the offal and bones for fertilizing purposes, and all that gets away from our vineyard is the squeal of the stuck hog. I'm trying now to see if I can't sell it to a phonograph company for use in their nickel in the slot machines."

The new estray law passed by the last Legislature authorizes any person to take up an estray and hold it for thirty days, during which time the cost of keeping will be a lien on the animal against the owner. If not claimed in thirty days the animal must be turned over to the Constable to be sold at public auction, and the money received at the sale will be devoted to the fees of the taker up of the animal and such Constable, the balance to be paid into the County Treasury for the benefit of the owner. The law does not repeal any pound ordinance existing in any incorporated city.

DURRANT and his attorneys are making a desperate effort to have Governor Budd commute the young fiend's sentence to that of life imprisonment. It is not probable that the Governor will interfere and the murderer of poor Blanche Lamont and Minnie Williams will no doubt have his neck broken on Friday, June 11th. The killing of the two innocent girls was most atrocious in the extreme and that Durrant committed the deed does not admit of a reasonable doubt.

E. W. DAVIS, Superintendent of County Schools, who recently was appointed Secretary of the Regents of the State University, will tender his resignation on July 1st. There are three aspirants for the position which will be vacated, as follows: Prof. Neilson of Santa Rosa, Prof. Cromwell of Petaluma and Prof. Hollopeter of Cloverdale. The Board of Supervisors will appoint Mr. Davis' successor.

Educate Your Bowels With Cascarets. Cascarets, cure constipation forever. 10¢, 25¢. H. C. C. Co., San Francisco, Cal.

The Supreme Court on Friday of last week filed an important decision relative to the issue of bonds by municipalities and the method of voting on the same. The opinion was in the case of P. W. Murphy, plaintiff and appellant, against the city of San Luis Obispo, defendants and respondents. Some time ago the citizens of San Luis Obispo were called upon to vote on the question of issuing bonds for $90,000 for water works and bonds for sewer improvements $34,500. The vote resulted in the affirmative and the bonds were accordingly issued. Before they could be sold, however, Murphy sued to enjoin the city from selling them and from levying the taxes necessary to pay interest on the same. Murphy attacked the bonds on the following grounds: That the bonds were made payable in "gold coin of the United States," instead of "gold coin or lawful money of the United States"; second that the question as to whether the interest on the bonds would be payable annually or semi-annually was not submitted to the voters, and lastly, that the voters voting for the bonds voted by stamping a cross opposite the propositions submitted to them, instead of indicating their wish by writing "yes" or "no" opposite the proposition they desired to vote for. The case was tried by the lower court and judgment given for the city of San Luis Obispo. Murphy thereupon appealed, and in a long opinion the judgment was reversed by Justices McFarland, Temple and Henshaw. The court held that it was not necessary to employ the term "gold coin or lawful money of the United States," but that "gold coin" simply was sufficient. It appeared, however, that the statute relative to elections for bonds had not been properly observed in the printing of the ballots. The statute was declared mandatory, and this being the case, the election in the present case was invalid. On this ground the judgment was set aside. The effects of this decision will delay the bond election in this town two or three weeks.

Smiles Irradiate the Countenances

When those atrocious bodily troubles, chills and fever, dyspepsia, kidney or rheumatic disorders, yield, as they invariably do, to the benign action of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a remedy of comprehensive use, pure in composition, and objectionable to a delicate palate, and thorough in effects. Sick headache, loss of appetite, flesh and sleep, nausea, heartburn, are among the physical annoyances obtained by the Bitters. They are in the nature of signals of distress displayed by a disordered stomach, liver and bowels, and disappear with the cause that produced them. But these signals should be heeded at once. Then the weary, broken look of chronic ill health will speedily disappear, and vigor and comfort restore a cheerful aspect to the face. That faithful index to the condition of the system never fails to warn a sick of sunshine when the Bitters is used to dispel the cloud.

SCHELLVILLE SIFTINGS

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kennedy entertained Oakland relatives last week.

Jerry Flynn of San Francisco visited Embarcadero friends last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Dowdall of San Francisco were the guests of Mrs. M. Donahue last Sunday.

Mrs. C. H. Wise has returned home after a three weeks' visit with relatives in San Francisco.

A baseball nine has been organized in this place, which will in the course of a few weeks challenge any nine in the Sonoma Valley. To use the expression of Chris. Wise, "She's a dandy."

The road sprinkler belonging to the county, which will be used in sprinkling the public road between this place and Sonoma, arrived from San Francisco on the schooner "Four Sisters" on Wednesday last.

Messrs. Lowell, Howe, Hall and other large fruit growers in this vicinity have commenced to ship cherries to San Francisco per the schooner "Four Sisters." Several large shipments were made this week.

The Schellville Baseball Club has been organized with the following members: Jack Mallon, John McNeil, Robt. Donahue, Fred. Schell, Arthur Schell, A. Frisbie, Chas. H. Ohm, Henry Stademan, Dick Watt, Tony Kiser, Jos. McMillen, Jos. Kiser, Theodore Kiser, John Guilfoyle, C. H. Wise. The President of the Club is John Mallon and the Secretary and Treasurer, Robt. Donahue.

At the next meeting of the Board of Supervisors, which will be held on Monday, June 8th, the question of raising the grade of the public road four feet between Vollmar's Hotel and the upper Jones ranch will come up for consideration. It is understood that Supervisor Putnam favors the proposition. The raising of this road is a public necessity and is deserving the serious consideration of Supervisor Putnam and his fellow members of the Board.

THURSDAY, Schellville, May 28, 1897.

COUNTY CLEANINGS.

By a document filed with County Recorder Atchinson Wednesday the Fulton Winery Corporation have transferred 30,000 gallons of dry red wine to the California Wine Maker's Corporation.

W. J. Hitchcock and Edward Snook of the Russian River Cannery went to Sebastopol Wednesday on fruit packing business. The Sebastopol cannery, in which the Russian River Company is interested, opened on cherries Wednesday and will pack the home-grown crop. The Russian River Cannery will commence on cherries next week.

Ed. Sigworth of Sebastopol, while roofing the new Methodist church building in that place, on Monday last, met with a serious if not fatal accident. The scaffolding upon which he was working gave way and together with two other carpenters who escaped unscathed, he was precipitated to the ground and received injuries to his spine which paralyzed the local extremities. The injured man's condition is very precarious. Later—the injured man died Wednesday.

J. G. Donigan attempted to commit suicide in the County Jail last Tuesday afternoon, says the Santa Rosa Press. He cut a fearful gash on the left side of the neck with a wood saw. When found Donigan was lying in the wood cell sweltering in his blood, which poured in a stream from his gashed neck. A physician was summoned and after dressing the wound the doctor gave it as his opinion that Donigan will come out all right. He was found by the other prisoners who missed him from their midst. Donigan pleaded with them to leave him alone and let him die as he did not want to be hung or shot. The saw with which he attempted to commit suicide is the one used for cutting the wood burned in the cage stove. Donigan was sent down from Windsor on May 17th to serve ten days for drunkenness. He is considered crazy, but he is mild and harmless and no effort has been made to put him in an insane asylum.

The new road law, says the Santa Rosa Democrat, continues to vex Supervisors, District Attorneys and the public generally. The Attorney General thinks the law is operative. The District Attorney of Alameda county yesterday advised the Supervisors to stop road work with the close of May, or be prepared to pay for it out of their own pockets. This hurts. There is a great deal of business in building and taking care of roads. So the Alameda Supervisors will immediately take the law into account for definite consideration.

ABSOLUTELY GUARANTEED to cure any case of constipation. Cascarets are the Ideal Laxative, the never grip or cramp, but cause easy natural action. Same in booklet free. A. S. STERLING REMEDY CO., Chicago, Montreal, Cal., or New York.

S. D. WORDEN, the train wrecker, condemned to be hanged at Folsom June 4th, attempted to kill himself at Folsom Tuesday morning. With a piece of glass from a lamp chimney he cut several veins in his arm and when found was bleeding profusely. Worden said that as there was no hopes for him he preferred to die now, rather than suffer death on the gallows. He was convicted of murder for the part he took in wrecking the train during the great strike which carried a regiment of United States troops. Engineer Clark and three soldiers were killed in the wreck. Ex-President Cleveland and C. P. Huntington have asked the Governor to commute his sentence to life imprisonment. Worden will not die of his self-inflicted wounds.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

ACCIDENT.

Two Well-Known Blockmakers Severely Injured by a Premature Blast.

On Wednesday last while John Hugett and John Fothergill of this place were engaged in blasting rock in the Lawrence quarry at Melita both were seriously injured by a premature blast. The charge went off while the men were engaged in tamping and it is a wonder both were not killed. Fothergill had his hand and shoulder badly bruised. Hugett was struck on the jaw by the tamping iron, which knocked him senseless. Fothergill was taken to the County Hospital for treatment, while Hugett was brought to this place. He is being treated at his home by Dr. Davis. The men had only went to work in the quarry the day before.

An Enterprising Railway Company.

The San Francisco and North Pacific Railway is doing much toward making known to the outside world the section through which that road passes. With this end in view a great deal of literature has been sent out by the company the past few years describing the varied resources of Marin, Sonoma and Mendocino counties. The latest effort in this direction by these enterprising railway people is a neat pamphlet profusely and beautifully illustrated with views of the various summer resorts which are within reach of the road. Among the illustrations appears the main building and swimming tank at Agua Caliente Springs near this place.

Had His Nose Broken.

On Sunday last while Fred Bulotti was engaged in playing base ball he was struck on the bridge of the nose by a bat, which shipped out of the hands of Geo. McGill. He was knocked insensible and upon being picked up it was discovered that his nose had been broken by the blow, which had sufficient force behind it to fell an ox. His injury was attended to by Dr. Davis. It is expected that young Bulotti, who is a member of the Sonoma Valley Orchestral Society, will be able to take part in the concert which is to take place next month.

Painful Accident.

M. T. Morton, residing on his farm in the southeastern suburbs of town, met with a painful accident last Wednesday morning. He was leading a cow, the animal became frightened and the rope became wound around his right hand before he could disengage his hand from the gnarled rope the little finger was broken and badly lacerated. Dr. Walliser attended Mr. Morton, and has hopes of saving the finger, which was stripped of flesh and nearly severed from the hand.

Agua Caliente Springs Hotel.

This popular resort, which is under the sole management of Mrs. Nordin, the proprietor, is now open to the general public. The hotel is rapidly filling up, and by the 1st of June there will be seventy-five guests registered at this famous Sonoma Valley summer resort.

Lost.

A black and white Esquimaux dog named Kemo. A liberal reward will be paid for its return to the owner Mr. W. F. Wade.

EDIPUS TYRANNUS.

The Great Greek Tragedy To-Night Will Draw an Immense House.

This (Saturday) evening the people of Sonoma Valley will have an opportunity of seeing a presentation of the Edipus Tyrannus. This will be the first production of the Edipus on this coast. The tragedy is of the deepest kind. Death and shame are met and the effects on the listener is one of purification. It will be well worth seeing. New scenery has been painted by Mr. Hugh Maxwell—it is severe, classic. There will doubtless be a large audience. Friends of the graduates in San Francisco and other places, around the bay will be here. Nearly all the reserved seats have been taken. No pains have been spared to make the event a success and there is every reason to believe that the school will be crowned with laurels. Those who have the interests of the High School at heart should, if possible, be present and see what the school is doing. DeQuincy said: "To have seen a Greek play is a great remembrance."

The Victim of the Razor.

Louis Fouts, who was cut across the face with a razor by Wm. Sikes, and who was taken to the County Hospital to have his wound sewed up, will have the operation performed over again. The wound commenced to heal nicely when it was found that several lumps had formed on each side of the cut. In order to remove this disfigurement the doctors at the hospital have decided to re-cut the wound, which extends clear across the face, and sew it up again. This will confine Fouts to the hospital for several weeks. Had the wound properly healed he would have been discharged from that institution this week.

Freak of Nature.

On Tuesday last a hen on the ranch of John Batto of Vineyard Station hatched out a chick that had four legs and four wings. The poulet only survived a few hours, much to the disappointment of Mr. Batto.

The Hay Crop.

The hay crop in this valley, as predicted in these columns some weeks ago, is very poor. On the Senator Jones, Rose and other ranches on the Sonoma marshes, however, there will be a fine yield.

Real Estate Transfer.

Frank M. Ames and wife have purchased an eight and a half acre farm off Broadway. They will engage in the poultry business. The sale was effected through the real estate agency of D. H. Twing.

Local Brevities.

A Mission will open at St. Francis' Church on Sunday, June 6th. It will be conducted by the Redemptionist Fathers, O'Shea and Lindner. Mass will be celebrated each morning during the week at 6 A. M. and 9 A. M. An instruction will be given after the 9 o'clock Mass. Instructions for the children at 3 P. M. The evening devotion will consist of Rosary sermon and Benediction at 7:30 o'clock. All are cordially invited. A large class of children will receive their first Holy Communion on Trinity Sunday, June 13th, at 8 o'clock Mass.

Rev. J. J. Girimondi of San Francisco, the well-known preacher and missionary, who is now on the sick list, was the guest of our esteemed friend, Mr. V. Bulotti, several days this week. During his stay in our midst the reverend gentleman called upon Father Quill, who is to open a mission in this place June 6th. A visit was also made to the good sisters of the Presentation Convent and also to the tomb of the late General Vallejo in Mountain Cemetery. On Wednesday, accompanied by his friend A. Berretta, he drove to Buena Vista Park and other points of interest in the valley and was kindly entertained at the home of Mrs. R. J. Snyder. The reverend gentleman expressed himself as being delighted with his visit.

THE FIRE FIEND.

TOTAL DESTRUCTION OF A WINE CELLAR THIS MORNING.

The citizens of this town were aroused from their peaceful slumbers this morning at 3:30 o'clock by the fire alarm bell, which had been sounded for the first time for a fire alarm since the destruction of St. Francis' Church last fall. Lurid flames were seen arising in the western limits of town at the foot of Napa street. It was then discovered that the Orsey wine cellar was on fire. The Sonoma Volunteer Firemen were promptly on the ground, but owing to the absence of a water supply were unable to turn on a stream of water on the burning wine cellar and with its contents it was completely destroyed. George Engler, Foreman of the Hook and Ladder Truck, and his men did effective service as a bucket brigade and prevented the flames from communicating with an adjoining barn. Had this structure taken fire several private residences would have went up in smoke.

During the destruction of the wine cellar Chief Poppe, who is opposed to everything the Poppe's can't run in this town, was hunting for water in any old well, which he discovered hard by after the wine cellar had been burned to the ground and the Hook and Ladder men had prevented the flames from spreading to the barn.

The cellar was the property of J. Chelini, the well-known San Francisco retail fruit dealer. The loss will amount to about $1,500.

Mr. J. D. Wagon of this place was elected District Deputy of District 12 of the Order of Rebekas, by the State Assembly which recently met in San Francisco. It will be Mrs. Wagon's duty to visit the several lodges in the district and install officers.

Robt. Hill of Eldridge was in town one day this week.

Mrs. G. M. Brush, fashionable dressmaker, 852 Main st., Petaluma.

An apron and neck tie party will be given by the Glen Ellen Grange at Mervyn Hall, on Saturday evening, June 12th. The floor will be under the management of Judge Zane, R. Sutherland and A. Harrison. This will be one of the most sociable hops that has taken place in our sister town this season.

The tea given yesterday afternoon in honor of the Class of '97, Sonoma Valley High School, at Eden Dale, the handsome home of Miss Alice Z. Howe, was an enjoyable affair. A select programme, both literary and musical, was rendered during the afternoon by the young guests, and this, together with the novel games indulged in, made "the minutes wing their way in pleasure. After this came dainty refreshments, which were served in the large and handsomely decorated dining-rooms. There was dancing, music and conversation galore during the rest of the afternoon, and when time for departure arrived all showered compliments on their young hostess for her agreeable entertainment.

Try the new Milliner, Miss R. English, 852 Main st., Petaluma.

Bittle Wells is visiting Sonoma friends. Mr. Wells is a graduate of the Class of '97 of Stanford's University.

Miss Ora Lawrence will leave next Tuesday for Paso Robles, where she will make her future home.

Mrs. Harry Collier (nee Alice McRoberts) will start for Utah early in July, where she will join her husband. Mr. Collier has received a call to take charge of an Episcopal Church in that State.

The owl's wise look is the result of a physiological oddity, his eyes being fixed immovably in their sockets.

The people of Santa Rosa are anxious to have the young High School students present the Greek tragedy "Edipus the King" in their city at no distant date.

Mrs. Claude Burlingame of San Francisco is here visiting her former home Green Leaf Orchard.

A proper towel folded several times, and dipped in hot water, quickly wrung and applied over the site of toothache or neuralgia, will generally afford prompt relief.

Mrs. Margaret Blake is visiting her aunt, Mrs. H. Appleton. Mrs. Blake recently arrived in California from Boston. She will remain some time visiting in Sonoma Valley before returning to her Eastern home.

Often only the whites of eggs are required for immediate use. The yolks may be kept some time if they are put into a small cup, covered with a little cold water and kept in a cool place.

There will be ten members of one of the prominent orchestras of San Francisco present at the rehearsal of the Sonoma Valley Orchestral Society here on Sunday, June 13th. These gentlemen have been engaged to play at the concert on June 18th, and with the members of the local orchestra will constitute twenty-two players.

For seven years the St. Lawrence river gradually decreases in depth; then for seven years it gradually increases in depth, the difference in level being about five feet. Why it does so no one has yet discovered.

Many seats for the orchestra concert have been already engaged. Those wishing reserved seats should get them as soon as they are on sale, as from the outlook Union Hall will be too small for the audience.

To protect the floor around the cook-stove stitch together on a sewing machine three or four large sheets of thick, brown paper. Mats of this kind will save many a grease spot from the kitchen floor or carpet. They are also nice to put under milkpans and cream jars in the pantry, and are so inexpensive that they can be replaced with new ones as soon as they become much soiled. Even one sheet of the paper laid down will help a good deal, and last for several days if one is careful.

The commencement exercises of the Sonoma Valley Union High School will take place next Monday evening at Union Hall, to which the friends and patrons of the school are invited to be present. After the exercises a farewell hop will follow.

Few people know how to cook water. The secret is in putting good fresh water into a neat kettle already quite warm, and setting the water to boiling quickly, and then taking it right off to use in tea, coffee or other drinks, before it is spoiled. To let it steam, simmer and evaporate until the good water is all in the atmosphere, and the lime and iron and dregs left in the kettle—bahl! that is what makes a good many people sick, and is worse than no water at all.
